

COLLIER COUNTY PROPERTY APPRAISER

ABE SKINNER, CFA

January 12, 2012

Taxpayer or Taxpayer's Representative:

If your firm or business is unable to file a timely Collier County Tangible Personal Property tax return as required by April 1st, 2012, an extension will be granted through no later than April 30th, 2012 subject to completion of the following information and including the executed document with each return:

Tangible Personal Property Folio Number: _____

Business Name: _____

Date: _____

Telephone Number: _____

Authorized Signature: _____

Returns must be postmarked by no later than April 30th, 2012 or hand delivered to our office by that date. A late filing penalty will apply to returns postmarked or received on May 1st, 2012 or thereafter.

Walter M. Rowland, CFE
Director of Tangible Personal Property